

ROCK ART RECORDING CLASS IN JUNE

The Yavapai Chapter will be offering the lecture portion of the AAS rock art recording course each Saturday in June – 7,14,21,28 -- from 9:00 to 3:30 in the pueblo of the Smoki Museum, 147 N. Arizona, (off Gurley St), Prescott The class, taught by Barbara Gronemann, will cost $50 for the four sessions. This is a unique opportunity, especially for members from any chapter who have been unable to take part in field schools because of work commitments.

Participants can gain the field hours needed for certification working on the Brooklyn Basin Project (See those details elsewhere on this site) as well as opportunities in the Prescott area offered later at the completion of this course.

The course outline can be viewed on this site: Click on Certification and then Certification Manual. The registration form can be found there also.

To sign up for the June course, please send the registration form and your check made out to Yavapai Chapter, AAS to: Susan Jones 46 Woodside Dr. Prescott AZ 86305. If you have any questions, you can call or e-mail Susan: 928-776-9085 or sukeyinaz@msn.com.

Barbara will have copies of the required texts available for purchase at the first class, if you have registered before May 1. These texts are: A Practical Rock Art Recording Guide by Jane Kolber $18.00, and Rock Art in Arizona by J. Homer Thiel $16.00.
