

Q Ranch Mapping Class

The Phoenix Chapter is offering a Mapping Class to be held at Q Ranch near Young AZ. Both archaeologically and historically intriguing sites will be part of the mapping experience. The class is open to all AAS members.

To become certified in mapping, you will need 12 hours lecture and 56 hours field work. These will both be held at Q Ranch in four long weekend sessions. (Arriving Thursday pm departing Sunday afternoon.)

The dates scheduled for class and lecture are:

August 27 - 30

September 17 - 20

October 1 - 4

October 22 - 25

Course Fee: $40 per person.

Camping Fees are $10 per person each Thursday through Sunday weekends.

Saturday night group dinner for everyone is $10 per person each Saturday.

Jonathan Rogers' Q Ranch Lodge is open for AAS mapping participants with special rates for meals and room. For a three night or less stay: $98 per person per night. With a quantity of 5 guests for three nights, rates reduce to $85 per person per night. For reservations or more information on lodging contact: Jonathan Rogers, Q Ranch Lodge, Young AZ, qranchlodge@earthlink.net or call 928-970-0596

We need your input as soon as possible. Please fill out and send the form below to:
