Notes from the Chair

I’m looking forward to seeing everyone in Wickenburg on Oct. 12, 13 & 14th for the 2013 Fall State Meeting. It will be a great weekend. Please drive carefully and bring any items you wish to donate to the silent auction along with your checkbooks to purchase some of the great items in our silent auction. We will also have a book sale. See the Meeting Agenda on page 2, the Field Trips on page 3, and the Workshop schedule on page 4.

If you get in on Friday, please join us for a potluck supper from 6 to 7 pm at St. Alban’s Episcopal Church in Wickenburg.

Fielder Fund: Your Chance to Endow AAS Publications

The Fielder Fund was created by the Society in 1996 to inform the public about American Southwest history, archaeology, and anthropology through the support of publications and other media. The goal is to build a fund large enough that its annual interest can pay for publication of The Arizona Archaeologist and other publications. Contributions to the fund are welcome from chapters and individuals. The name honors the Society’s first publications team, Marje and Herb Fielder.

Thank you to William Henry for his $50 monthly donation!

Balance: $39,588.70

For more information, or to contribute, contact our AAS treasurer: Trudy Mertens, P. O. Box 819, Wickenburg, AZ 5358. Please include your chapter affiliation.

Kick-Off Planning Meeting
2013 Arizona Archaeology And Heritage Awareness Month
Thursday, Oct. 4, 2012 at 10 am in the Basement Boardroom
State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO)
Arizona State Parks, 1300 W. Washington, Phoenix 85007

Please come and share your ideas as the SHPO initiates planning for the 2013 Arizona Archaeology and Heritage Awareness Month (AAHAM) celebration. We will be deciding on a theme for the month, so bring your ideas! We will be identifying our partners, discussing tentative plans for the 2013 Archaeology Expo, and exchanging ideas for the promotion of this important educational program within our state.

The 2013 Archaeology Expo will be held on Saturday, March 23rd, at the historic Horseshoe Ranch on the Agua Fria National Monument. The co-hosts of the Expo, the Bureau of Land Management and the Arizona Game & Fish Department, will be present to discuss preliminary plans for this unique Expo.

For more information, please contact Kris Dobschuetz, SHPO Archaeological Compliance Specialist, at kdobschuetz@azstateparks.gov or 602-542-7141, or Ann Howard, Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer/Archaeology, at avh2@azstateparks.gov or 602-542-7138.
CHAPTER NEWS

Agave House Chapter

August Meeting:
Ray McKnight, a retired Tucson teacher doing research on Arizona history, gave a fascinating talk about the Arizona Rangers. The Rangers were organized by the government because the Arizona Territory, at the turn of the century, was still wild country with criminals running rampant. The law-abiding public had been pressuring the federal government for some type of law enforcement for a number of years and finally in 1901 the Arizona Rangers were approved. Mr. McKnight told the group several interesting facts regarding the Rangers and also told of an encounter the Rangers had with the notorious Smith Gang in the White Mountains area. It was a very enjoyable meeting!

Field Trip:
On Sept. 1, Darlene Brinkerhoff of the Homolovi Chapter led the chapter members on a field trip to a gorgeous pictograph site off I-40 close to the Geronimo Trading Post. The site is now privately owned and accessible only with permission from the owner. Before I-40 and the site becoming privately owned, Route 66 ran right next to the site and I am sad to say that there is evidence of a lot of destruction. The trip was made even more fascinating because Darlene had recorded all of the pictographs (and published the results) and therefore was extremely knowledgeable about the site.

Next meeting:
Next month, Sept. 26th, we will meet at 5 pm at The Red Onion for dinner before our regular 6:30 pm meeting at the Black Mesa Ranger Station in Overgaard.

--Era Harris

Agua Fria Chapter

September Meeting:
Our first meeting of the fall season, Sept. 10th, was held in our new location. We currently meet at the West Valley Unitarian Universalist Church at 5904 W. Cholla in Glendale. Our meeting time is 7 pm. Prior to the meeting we meet for dinner at Applebee’s on 59th and Peoria. In October we will start having a social time at the church from 6:15 to 7 pm. Our new location is welcoming and we are looking forward to many enthusiastic meetings there.

Our speaker was Charles Gullet who presented a very thought-provoking talk on Chaco Fractals. He demonstrated that Chaco engineers were using advanced algebra to design load-bearing architecture in 850 AD as well as the repeated use of fractal geometry. See description of his presentation under the Desert Foothills Chapter for more details.

Our membership is currently involved in the planning process regarding the development of North Peoria. This is an amazing archaeological area containing over 700 known sites. Members Howard Openlander, Ruth Batillana and Charles and Theresa Zimmerman attended planning meetings throughout the summer. The Open Land Commission is asking for public and organizational input on how best to preserve the sites in this area. Chapter member Walter “Dutch” Duering is working on a letter to send to the commission expressing our chapter’s opinions.

October Meeting:
At our next meeting, Monday, Oct. 8th, our speaker will be Frank Barrios, author and civic leader, whose topic will be Mexicans of Early Phoenix: Historic Neighborhoods and Influential Families. In conjunction with this talk we are encouraging our members to attend an exhibit of old photos of Phoenix’s historic Hispanic and African-American neighborhoods at the George Washington Carver Museum & Cultural Center at 415 E. Grant Street, Phoenix. It is sometimes hard to imagine a time when the Salt River ran free through Phoenix and families picnicked along tree-lined canals.

Our hike leaders took a well-earned break over the summary and everyone is looking forward to cooler hiking weather.

--Paulette Gehlker

Desert Foothills Chapter

September Meeting:
Our members were welcomed back Sept. 12th with an ice cream social that was especially refreshing on a hot September evening. AAS Yavapai Chapter President, Charly Gullett, was our keynote speaker and everyone needed to put on their thinking caps to understand his talk. Charly, who has spent his life working as an engineer, discovered that there are fractals, or self-repeating patterns of squares and rectangles, on the floors of some later built Chaco Canyon rooms and kivas. The Chacoans’ understanding of engineering and mathematical principles in duplicating room floor sizes to exact doubles or half sizes showed that they understood spatial relationships. Although this doesn't mean that they discovered mathematics, it does mean that they had complex engineering skills and used them in their building; the degree of accuracy Charly noted in the fractal patterns is well within modern engineering standards. Some Mesoamerican architecture also show these fractal patterns but they occur after the time of Chaco. Charly's talk proved to be very thought provoking and we appreciated his coming all the way from Prescott to explain his theories.

October Meeting:
Our Oct. 14th meeting will be a mini-symposium about Perry Mesa. This special program will begin at the regular time of 7 pm, but because there will be four different speakers, the evening will probably run about 30 minutes longer. The title of the presentation is, Perry Mesa: What Now? The first speaker will be Dr. Kate Speilman, Professor in the School of Human Evolution and Social Change (SHESC) at ASU. She will discuss the landscape aspects of Perry Mesa such as agriculture, settlement and migration. This information is part of the faculty research project Alliance and Landscape: Perry Mesa in the Fourteenth Century. The second speaker will be Dr. Arley Simon, Associate Research Professor, SHESC, and Director of the Archaeological Research Institute. Dr. Simon will present her findings from a rock art study of the petroglyphs on Perry Mesa. Dr. Dave Abbott, Professor, SHESC, is the third speaker. Dr. Abbott will discuss his ceramic research on the chemical analyses of the phyllite-tempered pottery found on Perry Mesa. Our chapter has contributed to this research with volunteer time and we look forward to hearing what new information has been learned about trade patterns and the possible connections between Perry Mesa and the Hohokam settlements in the Cave Creek area. The final speaker is our own Scott Wood, who will attempt to wrap up all the elements discussed and conclude with some of his own recent research into the Preclassic and Early Classic period of Perry Mesa occupations. Scott says that much of the information from the speakers is new and this information will be the basis for many years of new research studies. Don't miss this informative evening!

Workshops:
- Map/Topo Reading with Al Cornell: This two-day workshop will be held in the Sedona area on Nov. 3rd and 4th. Saturday's class will be from 9 am to Noon with a lunch break from 2 pm til 4 or 5 pm. Sunday will be an all-day outing to practice what was learned. A brown bag lunch is required. The fee for this workshop is $50 and is payable on the first day of class. You must be an AAS member to participate and there is a class size limit, so don't wait until the last minute to register. Please contact Mary Kearney at maryk92@aol.com for reservations or more information.

- Ancient Astronomy of the Southwest with Ken Zoll: This is another two-day workshop to be held in the Cave Creek area on Saturday, Jan. 12th and Sunday, Jan. 13th. The Saturday class will be a workshop with sessions on Introduction to Archaeoastronomy, Mesoamerican Archaeoastronomy and Ancestral Puebloan Archaeoastronomy. The Sunday class will be a hike to the V-Bar-V to see petroglyphs. Two books are required ($30) and the class fee is $50. The exact times and place of the workshop will be forthcoming. The class is only open to AAS members. To make your reservation, please contact Mary Kearney at maryk92@aol.com.

AAS State Meeting:
Remember the AAS Fall State Meeting is Oct. 12-14 in Wickenburg at the Rancho de Los Caballeros. There will be fellowship, hikes and the presentation of the Archaeologist of the Year award. We would love to see lots of our members at the meeting so come and show your support for the AAS!

November Meeting:
There has been a change for our Nov. 14th speaker. Garry Cantley, Regional Archaeologist with the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Phoenix will present a PowerPoint presentation on Archaeological Resource Crime. Garry will show lots of photos and talk about recent looting cases that the BIA has been covering. This should be an interesting and timely topic as we are all concerned about the theft of archaeological treasures. Join us at 7 pm at the Good Shepherd of the Hills Church, 6502 E. Cave Creek Road, Cave Creek, AZ.

--Holly Bode

Phoenix Chapter

October Meeting:
Our October meeting will be on Oct. 4th due to an exhibit opening at Pueblo Grande on our regular meeting night, Oct. 11th. The talk, on Geronimo's Surrender – The 1886 C. S. Fly Photographs, will be given by Jay Van Orden, retired Director of Field Services for the Arizona Historical Society, Tucson. The Fly photographs document the 1886 surrender talks between Gen. George Crook and the U. S. Army with the Chiricahua Apaches under the leadership of Geronimo at Cañon de los Embudos in southeastern Arizona.
Arizona. Van Orden re-examines the historical accounts and the photographed records of the talks and adds information from consultations with descendants of the Chiricahua who were photographed and eyewitness accounts to provide new historical perspective on this event. This talk is cosponsored by the Arizona Humanities Council.

September Meeting:
Our Fall 2012 lecture series began on Sept. 13th with ice cream and toppings, which all present seemed to enjoy. The speakers for the evening were Dr. Thomas Wilson, Director, and Dr. Jerry Howard, Curator of Anthropology, of the Arizona Museum of Natural History in Mesa, who presented Mesa Grande: Past, Present and Future. They have uncovered even more information on the history of the platform mound and are anticipating the opening of the new Mesa Grande Visitor Center in January. The groundbreaking ceremony was held at the site on Sept. 4th. If you missed their talk, you can view most of their presentation online at http://azmnh.org/arch/treasure.aspx. They also gave us a short update on the work that was done at Mesa’s Riverview Park, where the new Chicago Cubs spring training facility is now under construction.

NOTE: We have moved up the start of our meetings to 7 pm to allow more time for our members and guests to enjoy a light snack while they chat with each other before the business meeting and talk begins.

Upcoming Meetings:
Nov. 8: Todd Bostwick, Director, Verde Valley Archaeology Center, In the Land of the Minotaur: The Ancient Palace of Knossos and the Minoan Civilization of Crete
Dec. 13: Carolyn O’Bagy Davis, author, Kayenta and Monument Valley: 100 Years of Settlement and Trading in Indian Country
Jan. 10: Arleyn Simon, Director, ASU Archaeological Research Institute, The Archaeology of the ASU Campus

Gallery and Museum tours:
Nov. 3: Xico Gallery, 33rd Annual Festival in celebration of El Dia de los Muertos: A Celebration of Life Festival. For more information about the festival, go to their website at http://xicoinc.org/el-dia-de-los-muertos.aspx.
Dec. 1: Grace American Museum and Cave Creek Museum, Cave Creek – We are planning to visit both the Grace American Museum and the Cave Creek Museum, as well as have lunch in a local restaurant. See their websites for more information: http://gracemuseumofamerica.org/ and http://cavecreekmuseum.com/.

Upcoming Workshop:
Feb. 23: Flintknapping Workshop with Chris Loendorf, Project Manager, Gila River Indian Community Cultural Resource Management Program. Chris will demonstrate the ancient technology of flintknapping in a Saturday workshop at Pueblo Grande Museum from 10 am to 3 pm. He will give hands-on instruction to a small group of people. If you are interested in learning how to knap flint, contact Marie Britton at mbrit@cox.net or call 480-390-3491. More details will be available in upcoming Petroglyphs.

Other:
Archaeology Southwest’s second Archaeology Café in Phoenix will be on Wednesday, Oct. 17th at 6 pm in the Aztec Room of Macayo’s Central, 4001 N. Central Ave., near the Indian School light rail stop. Archaeologist Alan Ferg, Arizona State Museum, Retired, will talk on Turkeys and Macaws and Dogs, Oh My! – Animals and Humans in the Southwest’s Past. Macayo’s offers happy hour prices for the event. The program is free, but participants are encouraged to order their own refreshments.

The Phoenix Chapter meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month in the Community Room at the Pueblo Grande Museum, 4619 E. Washington St. in Phoenix, starting at 7 pm. We take the speaker to dinner at 5:30 pm at the Ruby Tuesday Restaurant on 44th Street and Washington just northwest of the museum. If you are interested in having dinner with the speaker, please call or email Marie (480-827-8070 or mbrit@cox.net) so that she can reserve a large enough table.

--Ellie Large

Rim Country Chapter

September Meeting:
On Sept. 23rd, Assistant Archaeology Advisor, Ed Spicer, planned, coordinated and led a Field Trip to Wupatki National Monument. The trip combined members from the AAS Rim Country and AAS Verde Valley Chapters. Jay Lincoln and Brad Sutton, volunteers at the Monument, developed a program on Archaeoastronomy for the Fall Equinox especially for our Chapter members.

October Meeting:
For our October 20th meeting we will be honored by Janet Cantley, Curator and Manager, Heard Museum North Scottsdale and Heard Museum, Phoenix. Janet curated the current exhibit and will speak about it at our meeting: Beyond Geronimo: the Apache Experience.
She is currently working on a new exhibit, Stories Outside the Lines: American Indian Ledger Art.

We encourage members to bring friends or anyone from the community to our meetings which are held the 3rd Saturday of each month. We meet at 10 am in the Fellowship Hall of The Church of the Holy Nativity, 14114 Easy Street, Payson, AZ.

-- Evelyn Christian

San Tan Chapter

September meeting:

Our September meeting featured Dr. David Abbott, Professor, School of Human Evolution and Social Change, ASU, whose talk was on Warfare and Alliance on Perry Mesa in the Fourteenth Century. Dr. Abbott reported that recent research on Perry Mesa by archaeologists at ASU is challenging the Verde Confederacy model in several respects. By tracing ceramic transactions, this project investigates the local, regional, and macro-regional networks of social interaction among members of the proposed Verde Confederacy, and between them and their postulated Hohokam enemies. A ceramic compositional study categorizes the pottery from different portions of the confederacy according to provenance, providing the means to trace the movement of pots across central Arizona. For more information see the web page at http://shesc.asu.edu/research/projects/alliance-landscape-perry-mesa-14th-century.

October meeting:

NOTE: Our October meeting will be held on Thursday, Oct. 11th. The speaker will be Dr. Todd Bostwick, who was the City of Phoenix Archaeologist for many years. He will be talking about Turkish sites that he has visited. His presentations are always extremely informative. The presentation will begin at 7:30 pm. (This is the only meeting on our calendar that will be on a different night from our regularly scheduled meetings.)

The San Tan Chapter usually meets at 7 pm on the second Wednesday of each month at the Queen Creek Historical Society Museum located on the southeast corner of the intersection of Ellsworth and Queen Creek Roads. Guests are always welcome.

--Earla Cochran

Verde Valley Chapter

October Meeting:

The October meeting will be held at the Conference Room above Renee's Restaurant in Tlaquepaque on Rt. 179 on the 25th, at 7 pm. Our speaker will be Dr. B. Ka'imiloa Chrisman of Hawaii and Sedona. His presentation, Comparisons of Ancient Hawaiian Island and American Southwest Peoples, will be on the similarities and differences between the cultures and artifacts of the ancient Hawaiian Island and those of the American Southwest.

Dr. Chrisman was born in Ohio, and was fascinated by Native American cultures from a very early age. Like many such a boy, he went through the western educational process, including anthropology and an archaeological dig, with ancillary lab work in college. While in medical school, he was president of the Louisville Archaeological Society, and his contacts there aided him in observing both the "town" and "gown" aspects of archaeology. Later on, he used his skills of medical observation and diagnosis in his attempts to solve archaeological and cultural mysteries.

During his thirty years in Hawaii, he demonstrated from the first his deep interest in the Hawaiian culture, which led to considerable involvement with Hawaiian organizations, the "Hawaiian Renaissance", which began in the 1970's, and spent much time with Hawaiian elders and studied experimental archaeology extensively. A serious medical problem forced his retirement from medicine at a relatively early age, along with a move from Honolulu to the country on the Big Island. Fortuitously, these circumstances allowed a great deal more involvement in cultural endeavors and experimental learning.

Dr. Chrisman's western name had been set aside when he moved to the Big Island twenty years ago. He has used his properly-bestowed Hawaiian name, Ka'imiloa, ever since. It is a serious name of which he is very fond. Ka'imiloa has mastered a number of old-time Hawaiian arts and crafts, resurrected one lost art in particular, and is a Hawaiian cultural expert. Since moving to Arizona in 2003, he has compared the aspects of Polynesian and Southwest Indian cultures, and has begun to teach them. The comparisons are fascinating, and perhaps can be considered directly related.

Yavapai Chapter:

August Picnic:
About 25 members enjoyed a picnic at Thumb Butte on a warm evening in August. A good time and good food was enjoyed by all.

Sept. 20th Meeting:
Due to a speaker’s illness, the chapter had to get another speaker for September. Here is the information on the new speaker: Dorothy Fire Cloud, the new superintendent of the Montezuma Castle, Well, and Tuzigoot National Monuments, has come to the Verde Valley from her position as superintendent of Devils Tower National Monument in Wyoming. While there, she worked to preserve archaeological and ethnographical values and improve Monument safety. Her presentation, entitled Management of a Sacred Site, is based on her experience at Devils Tower working with a variety of partners, tribes, and communities to preserve the Monument. She will also compare and contrast the different experiences she has had working with groups in Wyoming and in the Verde Valley.

Oct. 18th Meeting:
Mr. Fred Kraps will be the speaker for October. He will be talking about his recent trip to Peru and will focus on the Wari, a pre-Incan group near Cusco and their influence on the Inca.

Field Trips:
Our field trips are still tentative, but here is the information as I know it:
September: The field trip will be at the Museum of Northern Arizona with more directions and information to follow.
October: The field Trip will be to the Grand Canyon Museum's back room artifact collection.

Oct. 3, 7:30-9 pm, PGMA, Phoenix, Lecture: Ancient Landscapes of the American Southwest by Wayne Ranney. Mr. Ranney is an engaging lecturer and scientist who has worked and lived in the bottom of the Grand Canyon, traveled to both the North and South Poles, and has visited over 75 countries. He takes listeners on a fascinating journey through time in the American Southwest and across the globe.

Oct 4, 6-7 pm, ASU, Tempe, Lecture: Pioneers of Southwestern Archaeology by Nancy Parezo, Prof. of American Indian Studies at the U of A. Dr. Parezo will cover the early years of Southwestern archaeology. Catherine Nichols, graduate teaching associate and sociocultural anthropology doctoral student in SHESC will discuss the impact of the early excavations at Canyon de Chelly. Wrigley Hall, Rm. 101.

Oct. 4, 7-9 pm, SWAT, Mesa, Lecture: The Palo Verde Ruin on the Northern Periphery by Mark Hackbarth of Logan Simpson

Design. Mark will talk about site chronology, structure, and organization of the largest Hohokam village on the New River. The topics will be reviewed in terms of the collapse of the ball court system and abandonment of the Northern periphery around AD 1050-1150.

Oct. 6, 13, 14, 20, 27, 28, 10 am–12:30 pm, Homolovi State Park, Site Tours: Tour of Homolovi IV Pueblo. Join Ranger Chad for a tour of one of the park’s archaeological sites not usually open to the public. Homolovi IV is the earliest of the Homolovi pueblos. Learn about the history of the pueblo and its link to the Hopi. Approx. 5 miles of walking on easy terrain. Limited to 15 participants; call the park to reserve a spot on the tour of your choice 928-289-4106. Weather permitting.

Oct. 6, 3 pm, DVRAC, Phoenix, Exhibit Opening & Lecture: The lecture, The Agricultural Landscape of Baby Canyon Pueblo by Melissa Kruse-Peeples, ASU SHESC, will kick off the opening of the new exhibit, Changing Landscapes: A Closer Look at Baby Canyon Pueblo, based on her interdisciplinary research. Kruse-Peeples will present an overview of archaeological research at Baby Canyon, focusing on what the study of agricultural features and dietary evidence reveals about prehistoric people’s use of the changing landscape. Lecture will be followed by the exhibit opening reception from 4-6 p.m. The public is invited for the lecture and reception.
