

The Verde Valley Chapter AAS will host the 2022 State Meeting here in Sedona on Saturday, October 29 and Sunday, October 30.

The Saturday functions are at the Sedona Elk's Lodge located at:
110 Airport Rd, Sedona, AZ 86336.

The focus of this year's State Meeting is: "ROCK ART OF ARIZONA....AND BEYOND"

The agenda for the Saturday portion is:

10 am to 11:30 am.....silent auction bidding & item purchases

11:30 to 12:30 pm.....Lunch will be served

12:45 to 2:00 pm.....Keynote speakers

BREAK

2:00 to 3:30 pm.....Mini-Presentations

HAPPY HOUR & SILENT AUCTION WINNERS

5:30 to 6:30 pm.....Dinner will be served

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The lineup of speakers include: (Details of their presentations will be in a follow-up Petroglyph.)

Keynote Speakers: Evelyn Billo & Kelley Hays-Gilpin

Mini-Presenters:

Aaron Wright: Rock Art of SW Arizona

Kaimiloa Chrisman: Rock Art of the Hawaiian Islands

Spence Gustav/Jon Petrescu:

Red Cliffs Incised - An Archaic rock art tradition at the Palatki Heritage Site

October 30 Field Trips:

Sign up sheets will be available on Saturday, October 29 starting at 9am. First come, first serve basis, space limited for each tour.

Loy Canyon Rock Art Site: led by Scott Newth

Verde Valley Archaeology Center: docent led tour

V-V Heritage Site: led by Ken Zoll (Ex. Dir. V.V. Archaeology Center)

Palatki Heritage Site: led by Spence Gustav

Registration is now open. Please print the form, fill it out, and return it to the address at the bottom.